PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is an action for determination of the dischargeability of the Debtor’s Student loans to the above listed defendants.
2. The Debtor filed for Chapter 7 relief on December 10, 2016 in order to have his unsecured debt discharged with the hope of making his student loan payments affordable.
3. The Debtor encountered additional hardships, primarily the reduction of employment and instability with part-time /temporary employment due to illness, creating an inability for the debtor to pay off his student loans.
4. The debtor fell behind on his payments and currently the loans are in default status.

5. The debtor does not dispute that he requested and received the loans from Sallie Mae and other and Federal family educational loans as well as private loans that were assigned and/or purchased by USA Funds for the current amount of approximately $100,557.21
6. The debtor attempted to make payments for multiple years at the expense of his ordinary and necessary expenses.
7. The obligations listed in paragraph 5 are made under a program funded in whole or in part by a government unit.
8. Plaintiff is informed and believes that accepting the obligations set forth in paragraph 5 will impose an undue hardship on the Plaintiff.
9. As a result of the obligations set forth in paragraph 5 above, Plaintiff owes Defendants, based on information and belief, approximately $100,557.21 dollars.

17. The Debtor meets the Burdens as outline by In re Marie Brunner v. New York State Higher Education Services Corporation 831 F. 2d 395, 1987 The Court required a showing that (1) that the debtor cannot maintain, based on current income and expenses, a "minimal" standard of living for herself and her dependents if forced to repay the loans; (2) that additional circumstances exist indicating that this state of affairs is likely to persist for a significant portion of the repayment period of the student loans; and (3) that the debtor has made good faith efforts to repay the loans.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully request that the Court determine that Plaintiff's obligations and debts to Defendants, including but not limited to, the amounts listed above and all appropriate interest, costs and attorneys fees are discharged pursuant to 11 U.S.C 523 (a)(8) and for such other relief that the court deems just.
